Pinkerton - 35, Winnacunnet - 39

Pinkerton falls to 7-4 on the season with an overtime defeat at home against Winnacunnet. The warriors hit a 3 to tie the game with less than a minute to go to force overtime. Untimely turnovers and missed free throws from the Astros proved costly. Sophomore Troy Galler was a bright stop for Pinkerton. His defensive energy shined as he grabbed a career high 12 rebounds to go along with 6 points. Pinkerton looks to get back on track with a tough road game Thursday as they travel to Bishop Guertin.

Pinkerton - 38, Bishop Guertin - 31

Pinkerton looked like they were playing with purpose today, specifically on the defensive end. They handled the pressure of Bishop Guertin well and found themselves tied 15-15 going into the second half. A big third quarter by freshman Cristian Brander was the key as he scored all 8 of his points in the frame. Sophomore Troy Galler continues to anchor our defense with a solid 10 rebound performance to go along with 6 points.

1/21/22

Pinkerton - 42, Londonderry - 51

Pinkerton jumped out to an early 13-10 lead at the end of the first quarter but quickly saw that fade as Londonderry played with a lot of heart and intensity. The Astros struggled to score in the 2nd and 3rd quarter. Even with a strong surge in the fourth, Londonderry was able to hold on to a 9 point victory. A bright spot for Pinkerton was sophomore James Wallace who led the offense with 10 points.

Early and consistent infractions impeded the Astros' offense from lift-off, as the Bishop Guertin Cardinals soared past the home squad, clutching a 9-0 victory.

Sophomore goaltender Tommy Richards showcased his talents early; he helped keep his Pinkerton Academy teammates in the game after Bishop Guertin tallied two scores in the first period. The scoring was replicated, however, in the second frame, which forced Pinkerton to head into the third period down 4-0. An astounding five more goals in the third period helped the Cardinals sail to an easy victory, ending the Astro's winning streak at three.

PA next heads to Crimson Tide country for a Friday night (1/28) showdown, squaring off against a top-contending Concord squad. They will afterwards finalize the weekend on Sunday (1/30) with a home bout against the Hanover Marauders.

Sophia Phaneuf

Phaneuf has had a consistent season thus far, scoring in each meet for the Astros in the all-around. This weekend was no different, making all of her routines and having one of the highest scores on the floor in an event she does not normally compete in. She continues to display great leadership, a positive attitude, and filling in wherever she is needed.
