The astronomical attack from Pinkerton Academy was too much for Londonderry High to handle on Sunday night, as the Astros found the back of the Lancers' net four times, sealing their first win of the season. Freshman forward Zachary Baker capitalized early, scoring off of a feed from junior captain William Ivers. Later in the first period, on a power-play, sophomore William Porter scored his first of the season, with freshman defensemen Dylan Clifford notching an assist. In the second frame, freshman forward Bryce Collins and junior forward Carter Choquette each deposited their second tallies of the season, pushing the Astros lead to 4-0 going into the third. Sophomore netminder Tommy Richards, from start to finish, performed both fundamentally and miraculously, as he gathered his first shutout of the season. The final score read 4-0 in favor of the Astros.

On Friday (1/14), Pinkerton heads over to Keene for an evening bout, and on Sunday (1/16) the Astros finish the weekend back at home against Trinity.
